

Rebecca “Becky” Dolan of InfoSight Corporation elected as AWMI 2021 Member of the Year

The Association of Women in the Metal Industries (AWMI) is pleased to announce Rebecca “Becky” Dolan as 2021 Member of the Year.

Dolan has been a member of AWMI for 21 years. In that time, she has held the Columbus Chapter positions of Newsletter chair, Vice President, President, and is currently a Member-at-Large. She has held the position of Central Region Treasurer, Vice-Chair and Director. She joined AWMI’s international board as International Membership Chair in 2021, making this her second year in the role.

Dolan has more than 21 years of experience in metal industries. She is employed at InfoSight Corporation, a supplier of identification and marking equipment to the metal industries. She began her career in 1994 as the receptionist. Over the years, she has progressed through positions in administration support, accounting and sales. Becky was promoted to her current position of Purchasing / Materials Manager in July of this year.

“InfoSight has been very supportive of my involvement in AWMI at every phase of my career,” Dolan said. “It’s an incredible honor to be nominated for this award. AWMI has provided me with a tremendous amount of professional development and support. The women I have met and connected with through my time in AWMI are intelligent, committed women; their mentorship and friendship has made a difference in my career.”

Dolan will receive her award at AWMI’s Annual Conference at the Lowes Coronado Bay in Coronado, California November 2-4, 2022. For more information, please visit www.awmi.org.
