

SARAH MORAN BIO

Sarah Moran began her career in the steel industry in 1996 as an Inside Sales Representative with US Steel Plate Products. She was promoted to Outside Sales in 2002. With the acquisitions by ISG and ultimately ArcelorMittal she continued her steel sales career, served as Product Manager for Plate Products, and went on to become Sales Development Manager responsible for a 14 sales trainees directing a year long outside sales training program. Sarah also held positions as Product Manager – Cold Roll and Product Manager – Hot Roll. Her career is a testament to longevity and survival in our tumultuous industry. In February 2019, she joined Central Steel & Wire, part of the Ryerson family of companies as Director of Procurement – Flat Carbon. On March 31, 2022, she was promoted to the Climate Vertical Market Manager with Ryerson Corporation.

Sarah has been involved with AWWMI (Association of Women in the Metals Industry) since 1997. She served on the Chicago Chapter Board as Programs Chair, Marketing Chair and eventually became President in 2001-2002. She briefly served on the International Board as Programs Chair in 2003 and again on the Chicago Board in 2017 in an interim role. She continues her 25 years of membership and support of the Chicago Chapter and all of AWWMI.

Currently, she is on the Board of Directors for the MSCI Central States Chapter and holds the Secretary position. And, she is proud to be one of the Co-Chairs for Ryerson's Diversity and Inclusion Council.

Sarah is a graduate of Purdue University. Her only daughter, Cassie is a junior at Purdue and is proud to be a Boilermaker fan. In her spare time, Sarah loves to travel, throw dinner parties, and enjoy life.
